Counterfeit electronic components pose a great threat to the reliability of systems and are a growing problem for both component manufacturers and customers throughout the world. IXYS Integrated Circuits Division is committed to providing the highest quality components to our customers. To that end, we strongly advise the purchase of parts directly from an IXYS sales office, sales representative, or one of our approved distributors. Parts purchased outside of these channels will not be warranted or supported by IXYS Integrated Circuits Division. Please visit www.ixysic.com for a full list of IXYS sales offices and approved distributors.
